SHIDSHEWANA, IN

Wed.-Thurs., October 9-10, 2024

Quilt and mercantile stores, delicious food and entertainment. What are you waiting for??? Now if all that shopping makes you hungry, we plan to enjoy the popular Buffet Dinner at the Blue Gate Restaurant immediately following the original musical production of "When Calls the Heart". Lodging for the night is at the Blue Gate Garden Inn & Conference Center right in the heart of downtown Shipshewana.

Day 2 gives us an opportunity to travel scenic backroads on an Amish countryside Brown Bag tour. We will pass horse-drawn buggies and learn about the fascinating lifestyle of the Amish. We will stop at a leather shop, basket shop and an Amish bakery among others. Last, but not least, our final stop will definitely serve your appetite! At the "Carriage House", Elaine and her son Seth explain what an Amish wedding day is like, complete with this special dinner served by the Amish to their wedding guests. This meal is a "pass the plates of meat, vegetables, noodles, and bread" affair and pie is always involved. Groups see an Amish bride's wedding dress plus a homemade church peanut butter demonstration! Bellies are full, afternoon nap on the bus and home awaits until our next trip!
